Graves has won accolades for her performances in opera houses on four continents, performing for three presidents, Pope Benedict XVI, dignitaries at the U.N. Summit on the Environment and at the National Prayer Service following the 9/11 tragedies.

She made her debut at the Metropolitan Opera in the 1995-96 season in the title role of Carmen. Her repertoire embraces sacred and 20th century classical music, German lieder, French mélodie, English art song, Broadway standards, and Latin jazz songs in Spanish and Portuguese.
